

Maximum Cash Assistance Benefit Amounts

As of December 1998

State	Family Type	Family Size
		1	2	3	4
Alabama	All families	$111	$137	$164	$194
Alaska	All families except child-only assistance units	$514	$821	$923	$1025
	Child-only assistance units	$452	$554	$656	$758
Arizona	Families with a shelter cost obligation	$204	$275	$347	$418
	Families with no shelter cost obligation	$128	$173	$218	$263
Arkansas	Families with gross monthly income below $446	$81	$162	$204	$247
	Families with gross monthly income of $446 or more	$41	$81	$102	$124
California	*  Non-exempt families: Families in which no adult caretaker in the assistance unit is receiving disability-related benefits or services (for temporary or permanent disabilities)	$302	$493	$611	$728
	Exempt families: All other families	$336	$551	$682	$811

* Benefits vary by region within the state. Benefits are shown for the region of the state with the largest TANF caseload.

 Current maximum benefit levels in the state are different than the amounts shown here due to a 1999 change. All the indicated changes except New Mexico's were increases. See the "Monthly Cash Assistance and Food Stamp Benefits" table for 1999 benefit amounts.

State	Family Type	Family Size
		1	2	3	4
Colorado	Single-parent families	$214	$280	$356	$432
	Two-parent families	N/A	$302	$372	$451
	Child-only assistance units	$99	$207	$311	$415
	Note: Counties have the option to provide higher benefits.
Connecticut *	Families living in unsubsidized housing	$333	$443	$543	$639
	Families that receive government housing subsidies	$306	$407	$500	$588
Delaware	All families	$201	$270	$338	$407
District of Columbia	All families	$239	$298	$379	$463
Florida	Families with a shelter cost obligation greater than $50	$180	$241	$303	$364
	Families with a shelter cost obligation greater than zero but not more than $50	$153	$205	$258	$309
	Families with no shelter cost obligation, and teen parents	$95	$158	$198	$254
Georgia	All families	$155	$235	$280	$330

* Benefits vary by region within the state. Benefits are shown for the region of the state with the largest TANF caseload.

 Current maximum benefit levels in the state are different than the amounts shown here due to a 1999 change. All the indicated changes except New Mexico's were increases. See the "Monthly Cash Assistance and Food Stamp Benefits" table for 1999 benefit amounts.

State	Family Type	Family Size
		1	2	3	4
Hawaii	Families subject to the work requirement, after receiving benefits for two months	$335	$452	$570	$687
	Families in the first two months of assistance, and all families exempt from the work requirement	$418	$565	$712	$859
Idaho	All families	$276	$276	$276	$276
Illinois	All families except child-only assistance units	$212	$278	$377	$414
	Child-only assistance units	$102	$201	$249	$319
Indiana	All families except child-only assistance units	$139	$229	$288	$346
	Child-only assistance units	$139	$198	$256	$315
Iowa	All families	$183	$361	$426	$495
Kansas	All families except those sharing housing with persons not in the assistance unit	$241	$326	$403	$471
	Families sharing housing with persons not in the assistance unit	$175	$271	$359	$432

* Benefits vary by region within the state. Benefits are shown for the region of the state with the largest TANF caseload.

 Current maximum benefit levels in the state are different than the amounts shown here due to a 1999 change. All the indicated changes except New Mexico's were increases. See the "Monthly Cash Assistance and Food Stamp Benefits" table for 1999 benefit amounts.

State	Family Type	Family Size
		1	2	3	4
Kentucky	All families	$186	$225	$262	$328
Louisiana	All families	$72	$138	$190	$234
Maine	 Families with no earned income	$208	$328	$439	$553
	Families with earned income	$198	$312	$418	$526
	Child-only assistance units with no earned income	$124	$237	$349	$460
	Child-only assistance units in which a caretaker (not in the assistance unit) has earned income	$118	$225	$332	$438
	Note: Families with a shelter cost obligation exceeding 75% of income receive $50 more than the above groups.
Maryland	All families	$177	$313	$399	$481
Massachusetts	Families subject to state's time limit living in unsubsidized housing	$383	$474	$565	$651
	Families not subject to state's time limit living in unsubsidized housing	$392	$486	$579	$668
Note: Families that receive government housing subsidies or that have no shelter cost obligation receive $40 less than the above groups. Families in homeless shelters receive $149 less than the above groups.

* Benefits vary by region within the state. Benefits are shown for the region of the state with the largest TANF caseload.

 Current maximum benefit levels in the state are different than the amounts shown here due to a 1999 change. All the indicated changes except New Mexico's were increases. See the "Monthly Cash Assistance and Food Stamp Benefits" table for 1999 benefit amounts.

State		Family Type	Family Size
			1	2	3	4
Michigan	*	All families except child-only assistance units	$276	$371	$459	$563
		Child-only assistance units	$96	$184	$288	$384
Minnesota		Families with no earned income	$351	$609	$763	$903
		Families with earned income	$386	$670	$839	$993
Note: These amounts include food stamp benefits.
Mississippi		All families	$60	$96	$120	$144
Missouri		All families	$136	$234	$292	$342
Montana		Families with a shelter cost obligation (except child-only assistance units)	$272	$366	$461	$555
		Families with no shelter cost obligation (except child-only assistance units)	$98	$161	$221	$282
		Child-only assistance units	$98	$196	$295	$394
Nebraska		All families	$222	$293	$364	$435

* Benefits vary by region within the state. Benefits are shown for the region of the state with the largest TANF caseload.

 Current maximum benefit levels in the state are different than the amounts shown here due to a 1999 change. All the indicated changes except New Mexico's were increases. See the "Monthly Cash Assistance and Food Stamp Benefits" table for 1999 benefit amounts.

State	Family Type	Family Size
		1	2	3	4
Nevada	All families	$230	$289	$348	$407
New Hampshire	All families	$414	$481	$550	$619
New Jersey	All families	$162	$322	$424	$488
New Mexico	Families living in unsubsidized housing	$331	$410	$489	$569
	Families that receive government housing subsidies	$231	$310	$389	$469
New York	All families except those in the Child Assistance Program	$352	$467	$577	$687
	Families in the Child Assistance Program	N/A	$350	$443	$536
North Carolina	All families	$181	$236	$272	$297
North Dakota	All families except child-only assistance units	$271	$363	$457	$549
	Child-only assistance units	$205	$276	$346	$417

* Benefits vary by region within the state. Benefits are shown for the region of the state with the largest TANF caseload.

 Current maximum benefit levels in the state are different than the amounts shown here due to a 1999 change. All the indicated changes except New Mexico's were increases. See the "Monthly Cash Assistance and Food Stamp Benefits" table for 1999 benefit amounts.

State	Family Type	Family Size
		1	2	3	4
Ohio	All families	$216	$296	$362	$447
Oklahoma	All families except child-only assistance units	$180	$225	$292	$361
	Child-only assistance units	$87	$171	$241	$311
Oregon	Families participating in the JOBS program	$336	$427	$503	$617
	Families not participating in the JOBS program	$310	$395	$460	$565
Pennsylvania*	All families	$205	$316	$403	$497
Rhode Island	Families living in unsubsidized housing; families that are new state residents	$327	$449	$554	$634
	Families that receive government housing subsidies	$277	$399	$504	$584
South Carolina	All families	$119	$160	$201	$242

* Benefits vary by region within the state. Benefits are shown for the region of the state with the largest TANF caseload.

 Current maximum benefit levels in the state are different than the amounts shown here due to a 1999 change. All the indicated changes except New Mexico's were increases. See the "Monthly Cash Assistance and Food Stamp Benefits" table for 1999 benefit amounts.

State	Family Type	Family Size
		1	2	3	4
South Dakota	All families living in unsubsidized housing in which a caretaker has sole responsibility for shelter costs, except families living with an SSI recipient	$304	$380	$430	$478
	All other families, except child-only assistance units	$173	$250	$300	$350
	Child-only assistance units not placed by a placement agency	$250	$300	$350	$399
	Child-only assistance units placed by child placement agency	$300	$350	$399	$448
Tennessee	 All families	$95	$142	$185	$226
Texas	 Single-parent families	$78	$163	$188	$226
	Child-only assistance units	$64	$92	$130	$154
	Two-parent families	N/A	$125	$206	$231
Utah	All families	$261	$362	$451	$528
Vermont	* All families	$407	$513	$617	$699
Virginia	* All families	$157	$231	$291	$347

* Benefits vary by region within the state. Benefits are shown for the region of the state with the largest TANF caseload.

 Current maximum benefit levels in the state are different than the amounts shown here due to a 1999 change. All the indicated changes except New Mexico's were increases. See the "Monthly Cash Assistance and Food Stamp Benefits" table for 1999 benefit amounts.

State	Family Type	Family Size
		1	2	3	4
Washington	Families with a shelter cost obligation	$349	$440	$546	$642
	Families with no shelter cost obligation	$212	$268	$332	$391
West Virginia 	All families except those sharing housing with persons not in the assistance unit	$149	$201	$253	$312
	Families sharing housing with persons not in the assistance unit	$112	$151	$190	$234
	Families in which there is a legal marriage	$164	$221	$278	$343
Wisconsin	Families with a Community Service Jobs participant	N/A	$673	$673	$673
	Families with a Transitional Jobs participant	N/A	$628	$628	$628
Wyoming	Families with a shelter cost obligation	$195	$320	$340	$340
	Families with no shelter cost obligation and families living with a relative who receives SSI	$115	$205	$235	$235

* Benefits vary by region within the state. Benefits are shown for the region of the state with the largest TANF caseload.

 Current maximum benefit levels in the state are different than the amounts shown here due to a 1999 change. All the indicated changes except New Mexico's were increases. See the "Monthly Cash Assistance and Food Stamp Benefits" table for 1999 benefit amounts.