* benefits vary by region or category. The figures cited here reflect maximum benefits for largest group of recipients in the state.

** This reflects the FY 2001 food stamp benefit for a family of three that is receiving the welfare benefit listed for each state. The food stamp benefit formula includes a deduction that provides somewhat higher benefits for families with high shelter costs. This table calculates the food stamp benefit using the typical shelter costs in each state for food stamp households not receiving housing assistance.

*** Minnesota's provides a cash grant that combines welfare and food stamp benefits.
