

Separate State Programs and State-Only TANF Funds

Note: The data below reflect state responses to survey questions as of October 1999. Some of the information in this chart has been added since SPDP data were verified by state officials. In some instances, state responses may not have listed all separate state programs and uses of segregated state funds. In other instances, there have been new initiatives since October 1999. Accordingly, this should not be used as a complete listing of separate state programs and use of segregated state funds.
